

Amanda E. Rosenthal – Associate

Amanda is an associate with the Las Vegas office of Daehnke Stevens LLP. Amanda’s practice focuses on the defense of healthcare providers in professional negligence actions and healthcare law. She also represents clients in administrative proceedings, including proceedings before the Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners and the Nevada State Board of Dental Examiners.

Amanda obtained her juris doctor from the University of Oregon School of Law, where she was a member of Oregon Law Review. She is admitted to the State Bar of Nevada, and the Utah State Bar. Amanda is admitted to practice before all Nevada state courts, the U.S. District Court for the District of Nevada, all Utah state courts, and the U.S. District Court for the District of Utah.

Prior to joining Daehnke Stevens, Amanda clerked for the Honorable Valorie J. Vega in the Eighth Judicial District Court, in Clark County, Nevada, on a docket that handled both civil and criminal matters. After completing her clerkship, Amanda worked at another defense firm where she defended physicians in all types of negligence, professional negligence, and administrative actions.

Education

University of Oregon School of Law, JD
Brigham Young University, BS